Hidden Face

אַסְתִּיר פְּנֵי

A film by Eyal Datz

The film is a unique journey into the meeting point of the Jewish faith and the holocaust events. Through the Admor of Sanz-Klausenburg's story of heroism, the film exposes the complex relations between the ultra-orthodox Jews and the memory of the holocaust, as well as their spiritual victory over the Nazis. The film was broadcast in the Israeli public Channel KAN and received excellent reviews
