St John's College, Oxford, A handlist of livres d'artistes, artists' books and private press books in the library, cataloguing by Silke Schaeper, copy-editing by Ruth Ogden and Catherine Hilliard, typesetting in Eric Gill's Perpetua, and laser-printing on Magnani mould-made paper, by Paul W. Nash, with one reproduction for an engraved illustration by Hector Saunier from Robert Marteau's Aux buveurs de rosée (Paris, 2003) by kind permission of the artist, digital scanning and giclée printing at the Ashmolean Museum Photographic Studio, portfolio by Juliet Chadwick. This special edition of one copy is presented by the library staff to Dr. P.M.S. Hacker on his retirement as Fellow Librarian, as a mark of esteem and gratitude for more than twenty years of exemplary stewardship, 51 pages

The College's collection of 20th-century livres d'artiste and private press editions was established by Dr Peter Hacker, Fellow Librarian 1985-2006. It is particularly strong on works of Atelier 17 and soft-ground etching in general.

This handlist is one of a series of catalogues describing the library collections of St John's College, Oxford. It follows A descriptive catalogue of the western medieval manuscripts of St John's College Oxford by Ralph Hanna (2002), A descriptive catalogue of oriental manuscripts at St John's College Oxford by Emilie Savage-Smith (2005), and precedes A descriptive catalogue of Greek manuscripts at St John's College Oxford by Mark Sosower.

Proceedings of conference: 12th World Congress of Jewish Studies, Jerusalem 1997

The archive of Rabbi Moses Nahum ben Benyamin Yerushalimsky (1855-1914) consists of more than 25,000 archival items, both printed and manuscript: announcements, petitions, invitations, and approbations - a wealth of literary raw material on public issues, Jewish education, Jewish law and customs, and fascinating communal problems. Yerushalimsky was a leading rabbi, author, and communal leader of Polish and Russian Jewry. 6,500 documents and 4,000 postcards from the collection have since been scanned and catalogued.
